Curriculum Process for New Course or Modification of an Existing Course

1. Faculty Creates or Modifies a Course

2. Departmental Curriculum Review Process
   - approves

3. College Curriculum Review Process
   - approves

4. Reviewed by UCCC
   - recommends approval

5. UCCC Chair
   - recommends approval as undergraduate course

6. Approved by the Provost or the Provost’s designee
   - undergraduate course

7. Add to Undergraduate Course Catalog

Communication of status to Dean and the designees identified by the Associate Dean of each college (list varies by college)

Proposed GEP changes not accepted. Course continues as currently approved [without GEP]

Recommended for approval pending minor changes

Faculty makes minor changes