Linguistics (16LIM)

Description

The Department of English offers a minor in Linguistics to N.C. State students, except LWR English majors. The minor is designed to investigate the structure and function of language as a cognitive and behavioral science. Five courses in designated areas of linguistics are required in the minor. Among students likely to be attracted to this minor are those who expect to pursue graduate study in linguistics, those interested in foreign languages or English as a second language, and those interested in communication sciences. No courses for the minor may be taken for S/U credit.

Requirements

- Completion of 15 credit hours of designated courses, all at the 200 level or above.
- At least 3 courses must be above the 200 level.
- Must also complete the study of a foreign language through the 201 level.
- Must have an overall GPA of 2.0 in the minor and may count no course lower than a ‘C-’.
- At least 9 hours must be taken in residency at NC State.
- Transfer credits must be evaluated by Dr. Reaser, regardless of their disposition by any other office of the University.
- A maximum of TWO (2) courses may be used (double-counted) towards both departmental major requirements and minor requirements.
